

MOTHERS CLUB OF JOB'S DAUGHTERS TELLS ACTIVITIES

The Mothers Club of Job's Daughters Bethel 50 held their first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Fischer with Mrs. Howard McDonald as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Don Wolf, president. Inspirational message "Beatitudes of Leadership" was read by Mrs. Marjorie Raymond.

Highlight of the business was election of officers. Mrs. Don Wolf was re-elected as president and other officers elected were Mmes. J. T. Quiser, first vice president; Robert Lenton, secretary; J. L. Stevens, treasurer; J. K. Burchfield, parliamentarian. Committee chairman appointed by the president were Mmes. George Crabtree, publicity; H. L. Ritko, membership; Fred Fischer, auditor; Margaret Raymond, sunshine; William Johnson, Don Luster, and Edna Moffett, ways and means.

Mrs. Edna Babcock gave a report from Bethel 50 in the absence of Mrs. Ruby Clere. The Mothers Club unanimously voted to assist Job's Daughters in their money-making activities during the fall term. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. F. Bishop, on Tuesday evening, October 11. Mrs. John Stevens will assist as co-hostess.

LAS VECINAS PLAN COMMUNITY TEA AND HARVEST MASQUERADE

The first fall meeting of Las Vecinas was called to order by Mrs. Richard Blakeley, president, Thursday afternoon in Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Speaker of the day was Adele Davis, well-known writer and lecturer, who gave a stimulating and pertinent talk on "Guarding Your Family's Health." Hostesses for the day were Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. Donald Hall, and Mrs. James Hall, while presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Emily Honzik and Mrs. Thomas Hoover.

Two main events planned by the club for the near future are the community tea and the harvest masquerade ball. The informal tea will be held Friday, October 7, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., at the Riviera Beach Club and is given for all new residents of Hollywood Riviera, Seaside Ranchos, and Seaside Heights. The reception line will include Mesdames Earl Eckert, Paul Koettger, William Mason, Harvey Spelman and Richard Blakeley, who represent respectively Seaside School, Seaside PTA, Hollywood Riviera Homeowners Association, Seaside Homeowners Association, and Las Vecinas. The purpose of the tea is to acquaint the guests with their new neighbors as well as to inform them of the activities and organizations in the community. Mrs. Claude Ferrel will chairmen the entire affair and announces that transportation and nursery care will be furnished for the afternoon.

The season's first major social event sponsored by Las Vecinas will be the "Harvest Masquerade" on Saturday, October 22, which promises to be a gay and unique affair. In addition to a full quota of hobgoblins, witches and ghosts, the evening will feature costume prizes, mix-up dances, a "Horror Chamber" and a fortune teller.

On the stroke of midnight the guests will adjourn to candlelit tables where a delicious buffet supper will be served. Mrs. Gene Byrd, social chairman, is planning the night's activities and announces that Benny LaGasse's popular band will play for the occasion. Mrs. Donald Hall will handle the sale of tickets and may be contacted by calling Frontier 4-4335. The costume ball will be held at the Riviera Beach Club from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m., and tickets for the dance and supper are $5.00 per couple.

Las Vecinas extends a cordial invitation to the residents of the Torrance area to participate in this gala affair.

St. Cecilia's To Sponsor A Canasta Party

St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will sponsor a dessert party at 12:30 tomorrow afternoon in Parish House.

Co-chairman for the party, which will feature games of canasta, are Mmes. Ruth Golden and Ada Siegrid. Everyone is invited. Tickets at 35 cents each may be purchased at the door.
